- 4.1.5 Staff Members undergoing any Skilling programs shall be allocated to a new project upon completion of the program and successful clearance of post skilling assessment. Allocation to primary skill will be at the discretion of RDG based on current available opportunity. Staff Members aligned to/ working with a specific Project during a Skilling Program but not allocated to the Project continue to be part of the deployable pool. The staff member will have to be assigned to project (Appropriate WBS Code) within one working day from the date of selection.
- 4.1.6 In the absence of allocation made in the system, the selected candidate will be made available for any earliest billing requirement.
- 4.1.7 In case of Staff member being rejected by Requestor or Staff Member rejecting the opportunity provided by RDG will be recorded as "Opportunity reject".
- 4.1.8 Employees in the deployable pool are required to maintain 100% physical attendance at the office during the pool period. Any deviation requires prior approval from RDG and HR. Unauthorized absence may result in disciplinary action, including loss of pay and/or cessation of employment.

4.2 Definition of Opportunity Rejects is described as below:

- i. Rejection by requestor for skill proficiencies /expertise.
- ii. Rejection by employee for Inter- city relocation (Including NCR) OR Intra city relocation.
- iii. Rejection by employee to work in shift-timings.
- iv. Rejection by employee for any other reason.
- v. Employee not appearing for client interview OR internal evaluation.
- vi. Absence for / from skilling programs.
- vii. Failure in Clearing skilling programs.
- viii. Release from project within one month of allocation for reason other than skill mismatch and project closure

4.3 Timelines / Pool Period

- 4.3.1 Staff Members in the deployable pool with three "Opportunity Rejects" or those who remain continuously in the pool for 60 calendar days—whichever occurs earlier (referred to as the Pool Period)—will be referred to the Business HR team. Any paid leave (excluding maternity leave, sabbatical, or medical leave exceeding 30 days) or accrued vacation taken during the Pool Period will be counted as part of the bench duration.
- 4.3.2 In line with the deployable pool policy, the Business HR team will initiate the for Staff Members who are unable to secure a new opportunity within the Pool Period. The Pool Period will be treated as part of the individual's notice period. The Staff Member will be required to serve only the remaining portion of the notice period, after which formal separation from the organization will be completed.
- 4.3.3 Staff Members who have spent extended periods on pool without active project and opportunities and spent 60 days or more, their notice period will be 30 days from the time of intimation of separation

4.4 Policy Governance

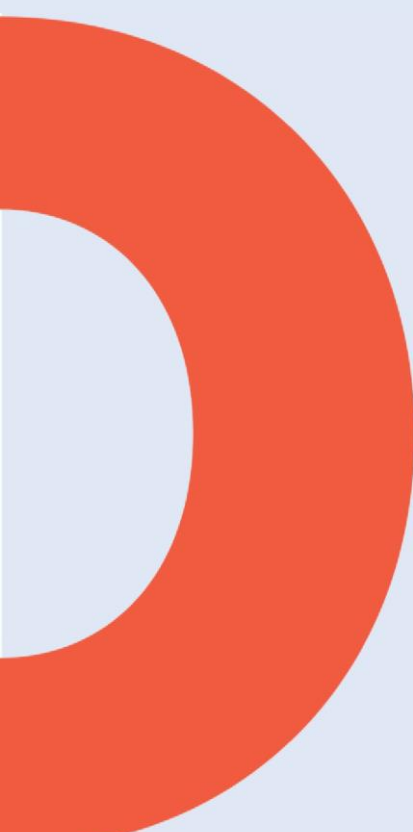

- 4.4.1 The above will be applicable for all lateral hires across offshore locations.
- 4.4.2 Any exception to this policy needs to be reviewed and approved by RDG Head.
- 4.4.3 Any case extending beyond 60 days will be reviewed by RDG, who will decide on the necessity of an extension.
- 4.4.4 Company reserves the right of its discretion in altering the Bench Period without any prior notice.
- 4.4.5 The benefits of this Policy are governed by the terms and conditions of employment in practice within company. This is subject to change from time to time. Company reserves the right to amend its policies as necessitated. All statutory requirements are applicable as mandated by law.
- 4.4.6 The Policy, including without limitation any exceptions thereto, is administered at the discretion of the Resource Deployment group and HR team.
