1. Objective

- 1.1. To provide an opportunity to employees and their families to visit places of their choice, within India, by compensating part of the expenses incurred towards cost of travel.

2. Applicability

- 2.1. This policy is applicable for Retainers & Regular employees in Coforge Limited and its subsidiaries.

3. Disclaimer

- 3.1. Coforge Limited and its subsidiaries reserves the right to continue/modify/suspend the policy at any time.
- 3.2. This policy is based on Income Tax rules of the country and in case of any conflict, the law/IT rules would take precedence.

4. Scheme Details

- 4.1. The scheme covers the employee and his/her family. Family, for the purpose of claiming LTA includes spouse, two children, dependent parents and dependent siblings.
- 4.2. Employees cannot claim LTA only for family members. Self-travel is mandatory.
- 4.3. LTA exemption is limited to the extent of actual travel cost (fair only) incurred by the employee on a trip in India, and not the total cost of the trip.
- 4.4. Under the LTA scheme, employees and their families are allowed to visit a place outside India. However, no tax exemption shall be available for overseas travel
- 4.5. In accordance with Income Tax Rules: "A Staff Member will be exempted from tax in respect of two journeys performed within India in a block of four calendar years. In case LTA is paid for third journey in one block period of four years, then third claim onward becomes taxable". The present four-year block is from 01/01/2026 to 31/12/2029.
- 4.6. The Employee must avail a minimum of 3 continuous days of leave/holiday to claim LTA. Out of these 3 days, one day has to be a leave marked on a working day.
- 4.7. The expenses allowed under the scheme are reimbursement of fares incurred by the following modes:
 - Airfare: Economy Class.
 - Rail Travel : 1st AC / IInd AC / 1st class / IInd class. Buses wherever rail link is not available.

Note: This does not cover journey undertaken by taxi or car

- 4.8. All fares are reimbursed for the shortest route, (as defined by the Indian Railways) for the final destination & back.

5. Entitlement

- 5.1. Employees shall be eligible to receive Leave Travel Allowance (LTA) up to the maximum amount as defined in their compensation structure.

- 5.2. LTA will be paid monthly as a taxable salary component. Tax exemption/adjustment will be allowed on submission of valid travel documents through the iEngage Tax Helpline by 20 March 2027.

6. Claim Procedure

6.1. Accumulated but un-availed LTA balance till 31st March 2026

- 6.1.1. Any LTA amount accrued but not claimed up to 31 March 2026 will continue to be available for claim until 31 March 2027. Employees wishing to claim this amount must follow the existing Voucher-based claim process at iEngage
- 6.1.2. Employees are required to raise an LTA voucher on iEngage and submit the same to FSO.
- 6.1.3. The voucher must be supported by original documentary proof, such as railway tickets/boarding passes and sent to FSO as hard copy.

If claim is not submitted through the voucher system, the employee will be deemed to have opted for taxable LTA against accrued amount, and no payment will be made for unclaimed LTA from earlier periods.

6.2. Claim process for LTA component effective 1st April 2026

- 6.2.1. With compensation effect from 1 April 2026, LTA will be paid monthly as a taxable salary component.
- 6.2.2. Tax adjustment/exemption will be provided if the employee submits valid travel documents for self and eligible family members
- 6.2.3. A separate window under “Tax Helpline” at iEngage shall be provided to make such claims on or before 20th March 27.

7. Service Severance

- 7.1.1. Employees who have resigned and are serving notice period, are not entitled to claim LTA. The unclaimed amount accumulated in the LTA basket will be paid in their Full and Final Settlement as a taxable allowance. LTA can be claimed as non-taxable, if the travel date is before resignation date per the above claim process.
