1. Objective

- 1.1. Coforge Limited and its Indian subsidiaries are committed to providing a work environment free from harassment of any kind, especially from sexual harassment, as per the guidelines of "The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal) Act, 2013".

2. Policy Statement

- 2.1. Employees will maintain high standards of dignity, respect and positive regard for one another in all their dealings.
- 2.2. Employees will understand and appreciate the rights of the individual to be treated with dignity.
- 2.3. Employees will adopt a zero-tolerance attitude against any kind of Sexual Harassment or discrimination caused by any Employee.
- 2.4. Employees will refrain from committing any act of sexual harassment at workplace.
- 2.5. Allegations of sexual harassment will be dealt seriously, expeditiously, sensitively and with confidentiality.
- 2.6. Employees will be protected against victimization, retaliation for filing or reporting a complaint on sexual harassment and will also be protected from false accusations.
- 2.7. Sexual harassment complaints shall be handled under the POSH Act, while all other complaints shall be addressed through the Company's grievance redressal forum

3. Purpose

- 3.1. The purpose of this document is to provide:
- a) A clear definition of sexual harassment and related retaliation.
 - b) The procedure to follow when an Employee is believed to have violated the policy.
 - c) A defined practice to ensure all allegations are investigated and dealt with effectively and in accordance with the law so that we preserve a healthy working culture.

4. Scope

- 4.1. The policy extends to all Employees of Coforge Limited and its subsidiaries in India or Across. This policy is deemed to be incorporated in the service conditions of all Employees with immediate effect.

5. Definitions

- 5.1. Employee - For this policy, Employee includes all Employees of Coforge Limited and its subsidiaries, Client, Vendor, or Contractor in company premises, or elsewhere in India or abroad, during their tenure.
- 5.2. Sexual Harassment – Sexual Harassment comprises any unwelcome sexually determined behaviour, whether directly or indirectly, by any employee. Such behaviour could be derogatory and could be preventing or impairing the full utilization of the employee's abilities.
- 5.3. Respondent – Respondent is defined as the employee against whom the complaint has been filed, irrespective of gender.

- 5.4. Complainant – Complainant is defined as the aggrieved person who files the complaint, irrespective of gender. In relation to the workplace, a person of any age whether employed or not, who alleges to have been subjected to any act of sexual harassment by the Respondent.
- 5.5. Internal Committee (IC) means the committee constituted by the Company in accordance with Section 4 of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 to receive and redress complaints of sexual harassment at the workplace.
- 5.6. Workplace – For the purpose of this policy, in addition to work premises, workplace will also include any place visited by Employee arising out of or during the course of employment including transportation provided by the employer for undertaking such journey.
- 5.7. Writing - For the purpose of this policy, writing shall mean any formally executed written document that can be formally attributed to its author, records and formally expresses a legally enforceable act, process, or contractual duty, obligation, or right, and therefore evidence that act, process, or agreement. Any communication made via e-mail except communication in Clause 10.3, should be confirmed in writing within 48 hours of sending the mail.

6. Explanation

- 6.1. Sexual Harassment shall include unsolicited Verbal, Non-Verbal and Physical gestures, including but not limited to-

Verbal	Non-Verbal	Physical
Making jokes with sexual overtone	Physical conduct, such as cornering or blocking a passageway	Touching (for e.g., Applying color during Holi or cake in an unsolicited manner), patting, pinching, bumping, grabbing, kissing, or providing unsolicited advances of this kind
Using sexually explicit profanity, sexually colored remarks & asking for sexual favors	Staring, clicking pictures without consent & stalking
Whistling in a sexually suggestive manner	Blowing Kisses, Winking
Describing certain attributes of one’s physical appearance in a sexual manner	Show casing printed material (for example, displaying sexually oriented pictures or cartoons) posts on any social media platform; or sending sexually oriented notes, letters, emails, or texts
Using terms of endearment such as "honey," "babe," "sweetheart," "dear," "stud" or "hunk"

- 6.2. A conduct if unwelcome, may constitute sexual harassment depending upon the totality of the circumstances including the severity of the conduct and its pervasiveness. Unwelcome sexually- determined behaviour shall include but not limited to the following instances:
- Where submission to or rejection of sexual advances, requests or conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or as a basis for employment decisions;
 - Such advances, requests or conduct (whether direct or implied) have the purpose or effect of interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating or sexually offensive work environment

6.3. Creating a “hostile work environment” means creating an environment that is intimidating, hostile, or offensive in a sexual manner and thus interferes with a person's ability to work. Following are examples of hostile work environment:

- a. Marginalizing someone in the workplace with regard to his / her roles and responsibilities, culture, race, gender, sexual orientation, socio- economic background etc.
- b. Socially ostracizing.
- c. Intimidating someone physically, psychologically, emotionally or someone close to or related to the victim.
- d. Spreading rumours.
- e. Any other behaviour that may commonly be construed as retaliatory.
- f. Creating a workplace where Sexual Harassment may go unheeded, where despite complaints no action is taken, and where complainant is placed under fear, disadvantage, or threat of victimization.

6.4. Abuse of authority (Quid Pro Quo) – When there is demand by a person in authority, for sexual favours in exchange for work related benefits it is termed as abuse of authority (e.g., a wage increase, a promotion, training opportunity, a transfer, or the job itself).

7. Responsibilities

7.1. HR Responsibilities

- a) As soon as the departmental head /HR receives any such complaint of sexual harassment, he /she should forward in writing to the IC immediately for further action.
- b) Ensure that employees are communicated properly about POSH policy and available on company's website.

7.2. Employer Responsibilities

- a) Ensure a safe, secure, and harassment-free working environment at the workplace
- b) Display, at conspicuous places, POSH-related information including the penal consequences of sexual harassment and details of the Internal Committee members
- c) Conduct regular awareness and sensitisation programmes for employees and orientation programmes for Internal Committee members
- d) Provide necessary infrastructure, facilities, and administrative support to the Internal Committee for conducting inquiries
- e) Facilitate the attendance of the respondent and witnesses before the Internal Committee
- f) Make available such information and documents as may be required by the Internal Committee
- g) Initiate appropriate disciplinary action against the respondent, in accordance with applicable service rules
- h) Ensure timely implementation of the recommendations of the Internal Committee
- i) Submit the Annual Report of the Internal Committee to the District Officer, as required under the POSH Act
- j) Include details of POSH complaints and their disposal in the Company's Annual Report

Confidentiality:

The Company will do everything consistent with enforcement of this policy and with the law to protect the privacy of the individuals involved and ensure that the complainant and the respondent are treated fairly. Information about individual complaints and their disposition is considered confidential and will be shared only on a "need to know" basis.

7.3. Internal Committee (IC)

Internal committee (IC) is committee that is formulated to address a complaint of sexual harassment.

In addition to managing a complaint of sexual harassment, the Committee may also co-ordinate preventive activities within their respective locations to create a sexual harassment free atmosphere via information mailers, circulating articles on the subject, and holding awareness sessions.

To prevent instances of sexual harassment and to receive and effectively deal with complaints pertaining to the same, the IC shall be constituted at each location with minimum 4 members headed by a senior woman Employee (the Presiding Officer), minimum 50% women and 1 external member. The current nominated members of the Committee are given in Annexure I.

The term of office of the members of the IC shall be for a period of three (3) years. The committee will be reconstituted in case any of the nominated members as per Annexure 1, is unavailable due to any reason whatsoever.

The committee will comprise of:

- a) Presiding Officer, who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at workplace from amongst the Employees.
- b) One member from the non-governmental organization or associations committed to the cause of women or a person familiar with the issues relating to sexual harassment.
- c) Not less than two members from amongst Employees preferably committed to the cause of women or who have had experience in social work or have legal knowledge.
- d) At least one-half of the total members so nominated shall be women.
- e) The sexual harassment redressal IC email id will be shrc@coforge.com
- f) In case any Committee member happens to be Manager / Supervisor of the complainant or the person against whom the complaint is made or associated with the complainant/respondent/incident being reported, he/she shall not function as a member of the Committee for that respective matter.
- g) For the purpose of making inquiry, the IC shall have power in respect to the following matters, namely:
 - i. Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him or her on oath;
 - ii. Investigating, inquiring, cross examining any person;
 - iii. Directing the discovery and production of documents; and
 - iv. Any other matter which may be prescribed

8. Procedure to Complain

If any employee believes that he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment, the following procedure shall be applicable to raise the complaint:

- 8.1. Grievance should be reported in writing along with the supporting documents and the names and addresses of the witnesses to the IC within three months from the date of last occurrence of the alleged incident at shrc@coforge.com. If the complaint is made orally, the complainant will be requested to confirm the complaint in writing to IC and sign it. IC will provide support to complainant, if required. In an exceptional case, the time limit of three months may be relaxed to add another three months, if the IC is convinced of the validity of the reason for delay in reporting the incident.
- 8.2. On receipt of the complaint, the IC shall share a copy received from the complainant to the respondent within a period of seven working days.
- 8.3. The respondent shall file their reply to the IC along with their list of documents, and names and addresses of witnesses, within a period not exceeding ten working days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- 8.4. A hearing will be held in strict confidence, and the incident will be investigated promptly in an impartial manner without victimizing or discriminating against the parties concerned.
- 8.5. On the request of the complainant, the Committee will explore the possibility of conciliation / settlement with the respondent.

All the proceedings of such Conciliation shall be recorded in writing and the settlement arrived at, if any, shall be duly recorded and signed by both the parties. Copies of the same shall also be provided to each party. The conciliation request shall be furnished to the management for necessary actions, based on the report prepared by the committee post their investigation.

No monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of Conciliation.

Where settlement has been arrived at, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the Committee.

9. Inquiry into the Complaint

- 9.1. In case the complainant is not interested in conducting Conciliation or no settlement is arrived at during the Conciliation proceedings, the Committee shall proceed with the inquiry of the complaint. The Committee members shall hear the Complainant and record her / his allegations. The complainant can also submit any evidence to substantiate his/her complaint. Written material needs to be signed by the parties to be considered as true copies. The Committee will record the proceedings of the inquiry, and the attendance of all parties present at any of the meetings.
- 9.2. Thereafter, the respondent will be called for a meeting with the IC through an email communication which will mention the fact that a complaint has been registered against him/her. The Committee shall make inquiry into the complaint in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- 9.3. The Committee shall provide every reasonable opportunity to the complainant and to the respondent, for putting forward and defending their respective case. If the respondent wishes to tender any documentary evidence, he/she will be required to provide true copies of those documents to the Committee. To ensure that the documents are considered as true copies, parties will be required to sign the documents submitted.
- 9.4. The Committee shall have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex parte decision on the complaint, if the complainant or respondent fails, without sufficient cause to present herself or himself for three consecutive hearings convened by the Chairperson or Presiding Officer, as the case may be. Provided that such termination or ex parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, fifteen days in advance, to the party concerned.

- 9.5. The parties shall not be allowed to bring in anyone to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the Committee.
- 9.6. In conducting the inquiry, a minimum of three members of the Committee including the Presiding Officer shall be present.
- 9.7. Each complaint shall be resolved within a period of 90 days from the complaint. The Committee will complete the inquiry as soon as is possible and communicate its findings.
- 9.8. Any complaint that comes up has to be sent to the IC irrespective of the nature it carries. No preliminary inquiry is to be done here.
- 9.9. In case the Committee finds the offence is covered under the Indian Penal Code, then this fact shall be mentioned in its report and appropriate action shall be initiated to support the complainant in making a police complaint.
- 9.10. In case the complaint is found to be false, the complainant/witness giving false evidence shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action.
- 9.11. Any victimization of, or retaliation against, the complainant, respondent or any employee who gives evidence regarding sexual harassment will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

10. Action During Pendency of Inquiry

During the pendency of the inquiry, upon a written request made by the complainant, the Committee may recommend to the employer to:

- 10.1. Transfer the complainant / respondent to any other workplace till the inquiry is concluded.
- 10.2. Grant leaves to the complainant up to a period of three months. Such leave granted herein shall be in addition to the leave granted under the service rules; or
- 10.3. Grant any such other relief, as may be prescribed.

11. Third Party Harassment

Where sexual harassment occurs as a result of an act or omission by any third party or outsider i.e., clients, customers, vendors, visitor etc., the employer and person in charge will take necessary and reasonable steps to assist the aggrieved person in terms of support and preventive action. In such a scenario, the aggrieved individual may be directed to lodge the grievance with the IC.

12. Disciplinary Action

- 12.1. Where the IC arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the management / India HR Head to take appropriate action.
- 12.2. The disciplinary action will be conducted by the concerned HR department. All related documents will be maintained by the internal committee ensuring confidentiality.
- 12.3. Based on the Committee's inquiry Report, the HR Department, under the directions of the Committee, may:
 - a) Take disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
 - b) Any other action as may be deemed appropriate by the service rules, including but not limited to, demotion, withholding increment / promotion, legal action through appropriate authorities including but not limited to criminal action.

13. Appeal

Any person aggrieved from the recommendations made by the Committee or non- implementation of such recommendations may appeal to the appellate authority notified under clause (a) of Section 2 of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946.
